PROGRAM OVERVIEW The Podiatric Medicine and PMSR-RRA program at Oak Hill Hospital is part of the HCA West Florida GME Consortium and is accredited by the CPME.

The competencies and rotation for this program will train and teach graduating podiatric student to be competent in foot and ankle surgery.

During the course of the training program, the podiatric resident should become integrated into the medical community and learn to work with other professionals in the medical field. The resident will understand medical, biomechanics of the lower extremity and surgical principles as well as foot and ankle reconstructive surgery.
